In 1962 we received a
"Centennial Family Farm Award"
from Wallace Farmer.

In 1965, we received the award from the Iowa State Grange for being the Grange family that had lived on the same farm the longest in Iowa.

In June, 1973, we received a certificate from the Iowa Department of Agriculture for farming this land for over 50 years.

At one time, a small town
"Watsonville" was located on one corner of this farm.

The "Rorabaugh Cemetery" is located on the south west corner of the farm.

The one-room Rosabaugh School still stands across the road from the Rosabaugh home. The school house is used as a voting place for Mt. Prairie Township.
